SHARING OUR TREASURE

September 24, 2022:	$ 5,937

Candles:	$ 112
Attendance:	422

The disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith. They thought they didn't have "great faith" to follow all of their master's commandments. Jesus' answer to them is very instructive. "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed...", He told them. Jesus was in fact telling them that they do not need "great faith". Just a small faith in God and God can do great things through them.

Our faith is planted in us in baptism. It takes root deep within us, is fertilized and nurtured by others – probably our parents, godparents, other family members, teachers, mentors, peers – and grows and grows for many years. We may feel that our faith is weak, threatened by doubt, but in fact it is rooted more deeply than any tree. With faith of any size, we have the power to do great things.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

The prophet Habakkuk cries out despairingly to God because of the state Jerusalem has fallen into. He asks why God does nothing to stop the violence and misery. God assures him that a time will come when only the just and faithful will live.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

Paul writes to Timothy from prison and urges him to continue to spread the gospel without fear or shame. He also tells Timothy to draw upon the strength of the Holy Spirit to help him face the hardships he will encounter while preaching.

Gospel: Luke 17:5-10

The disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith. Jesus replies that "faith the size of a mustard seed could transplant a sycamore," indicating that a person either has faith, strong and complete, or none at all. Jesus also explains that a servant will not receive gratitude for simply following his master's orders. In the same way, we are all God's servants doing no more than our duty when we obey God's commands.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Every Tuesday
8:30 AM – 8:00 PM

Ways to Spend an Hour with Jesus:

The Eucharist is the heart and the summit of the Church's life, for in it Christ associates his Church and all her members with his sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving offered once for all on the cross to his Father; by this sacrifice he pours out the graces of salvation on his Body which is the Church.

"There is no saint without a past, no sinner without a future."
