FAITHFUL

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 17:8-13

Amalek and his people attacked the Israelites, so Moses instructed Joshua to lead some of the Israelites into battle the next day. While Moses kept his hands raised in prayer, the Israelites were winning. But when he put his hands down, they would begin to lose. So two others helped him keep his hands raised, and Joshua and the Israelites won the battle.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14—4:2

Paul tells Timothy that the Scriptures are inspired by God and are an excellent tool in teaching others about God's expectations of his people. Knowledge of the Scriptures, coupled with faith in Jesus, will lead many people to salvation. Paul urges Timothy to continue preaching the gospel, although this will sometimes be a difficult task.

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8

Jesus speaks about a corrupt judge who lacked respect for either God or man. A widow repeatedly asked him to settle a case in her favor. He finally settled the case, only because he grew weary of listening to her requests. Jesus points out that if even this corrupt judge eventually listened, then God, who is just, will certainly answer the pleas of his people.

What people are like: "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being". Maybe our town. Appointed or elected, some judges sound like Jesus' parable judge, whose corruption short-circuits a widow's justice. So Jesus teaches us "to pray always without becoming weary". Although "for a long time the judge was unwilling," he eventually renders "a just decision...because this widow keeps bothering me" and "lest she finally come and strike me".

What God is like: "Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will God be slow to answer them?" God sometimes seems slow. But Jesus boldly asserts: "God will see to it that justice is done for them speedily". But since God's speedy differs from ours, Jesus' story counsels us to be dauntless in faith, unwearied in prayer, confident God's justice will come for everyone. But Jesus' poignant final question is pointedly left unanswered: "But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

CHRISTIAN SERVICE COMMITTEE

The new book will go along with the pajamas for that age child. Please keep the book and pajamas together, either in a shopping bag or rubber band for ease of distribution.

We are working with Norwescap, a Morris County agency that works towards family self sufficiency. The pajamas and books we collect provide these items to children in low-income families as well as to children in an early head-start program.

The collection will start on October 15th with a box in the back of church and will continue until November 5th. Any questions, contact 201.675.4802. Thank you in advance for you generosity!

GRIEF GROUP

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Every Tuesday
8:30 AM – 8:00 PM

Ways to Spend an Hour with Jesus:

The Eucharist is the memorial of Christ's Passover, that is, of the work of salvation accomplished by the life, death, and resurrection of Christ, a work made present by the liturgical action.

"I encourage Christians regularly to visit Christ present in the Blessed Sacrament."
