EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter discusses Jesus' life of preaching and healing. Jesus was crucified, and then he rose up and was seen by his chosen witnesses. Peter also mentions the importance of all the disciples bearing witness to what they saw, so that many people would believe in Jesus, and have their sins forgiven through him.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul asserts that we must pay attention to higher realms rather than earthly concerns. Our life is not yet completely known to us, until Christ appears and we are raised to glory in him.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

When Mary Magdalene discovered Jesus' tomb was open, she told Simon Peter and another disciple. They ran to the tomb and Peter went inside. He found the burial wrappings on the ground, with the head covering separate from the rest. The other disciple came in and they believed what they saw, although until then they had not understood the Scripture's message of Jesus' resurrection.

John ran and arrived at the tomb first, but waited so Peter could be the first to enter. John heard Peter promise at the Last Supper that he would never desert or deny Jesus; and John was at the foot of the cross and knew that Peter was not there.

How easy it would have been for John to go in first. Didn't he deserve to? Wasn't he the more faithful one? But John waits out of deference to Peter! John doesn't see Peter as the betrayer, but as the disciple whom Jesus loved so much he made him the rock of the Church. At the empty tomb, perhaps John discovered in himself a mercy for Peter he could not have imagined because Love and Life had risen from that very tomb. The truth of the risen Christ was already reviving the love of friendship.

And what must this have looked like through the eyes of Peter? The risen Christ had not yet appeared to him, but he was already glimpsing him, not just through the mysterious garments in the empty tomb, but in the eyes of his friend.

Where have you had glimpses of the Resurrection? In whose face? In whose forgiveness? In what inexplicable love that may have emerged from your own heart?

Keep running. Keep looking. His tomb is empty so that your life may be full.

Happy Easter!

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

"Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus, were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall be united with him in the resurrection....Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus."

We are blessed with countless scripture readings, joyfully reminding us of Jesus' resurrection, which is a foretaste of our own, one day with Him. Every time we celebrate baptisms in the church, the newly baptized dies and rises, in Paul's words, to 'a newness of life.' Baptism is not an event, but an encounter with the Risen Christ.

On this, the greatest feast day of the church, may I recognize that I have been called to a new life, and my heart burns with excitement, as the scriptures tell me of the ongoing significance of this day. He speaks to us in His word, and we discover Him present 'in the breaking of the bread.'
