SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men informed the Gentiles that they must be circumcised if they wished to be saved, because of the Old Laws. Disciples then went forth to tell the Gentiles to honor only those rules which were strictly necessary, such as abstaining from eating meat sacrificed to idols and illicit sexual union.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

John depicts Jerusalem coming out of heaven, sparkling with the radiance of precious jewels. Angels were stationed at each of its twelve gates, and each gate bore the name of one tribe of Israel. The city had no temple, because God was its temple. The glory and light of God and the Lamb also replaced their need for the sun.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus tells his disciples, "Anyone who loves me will be true to my word." For those who do honor his word, both Jesus and God will love them and stay with them always. He also tells them that God will send the Holy Spirit in his place to give them the instructions they will need. Jesus then tells them that peace is his farewell gift to them.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

May 15, 2022:	$ 5,909
Candles:	$ 72
Poor Box:	$ 4
Attendance:	$ 480

The first apostles had a fundamental decision to make about the future of the church. They could choose to create rigorous requirements for admission, restricting membership to only those from the same tradition as the apostles themselves, or they could opt for very basic provisions, only those necessary to express this novel faith. Jesus never specified what direction to take. But he welcomed people of all backgrounds and never probed his disciples' pasts to make sure they were faithfully practicing the Jewish faith. Before he ascended to heaven, he told them to make disciples of all nations.

The apostles rely on the Holy Spirit to guide them as to which Mosaic practices are necessary for all Christians. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that the Father would send the Holy Spirit to teach them, to remind them of his words and to advocate for them. In the presence of the Spirit, let us listen to God's word.
