FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c

Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to his ideals is what matters most.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach his good news, telling them "the harvest is rich, but the workers few." He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

Imagine being one of those sent. Who is your companion, as you go to bring the message of Jesus to someone else? Is your partner the talkative type, allowing you to remain present, but quiet? To whom will you go, either knocking on a door, stopping by a hospital bed, saying hello to someone in the laundromat?

Well, you are one of the lucky ones, not among the seventy-two, but among all the baptized to work in bringing in the harvest. If someone doesn't do his or her part, the harvest fails, dies, or simply rots. The Lord needs people to follow His call as priests and deacons, as religious and committed lay workers, as missionary disciples. The good thing is, we do not do it alone but the Lord accompanies you.

The seventy-two disciples were also dependent upon the generosity of those to whom they preached. It is important to remember that when we minister to others, we must also be vulnerable enough to let them minister to us.

Love means both serving others and allowing them to serve us.

Please bring your child's Baptismal Certificate if he/she is new to the program. Registration forms will be available.

GROW IN FAITH

There are many ways our faith becomes stronger and more meaningful. One of the best ways this happens is when you have to explain or demonstrate to someone else your own understanding or beliefs. This makes teaching an outstanding way to grow. Becoming a teacher in the Religious Education Program not only brings our faith to the hearts of youngsters for life, it also helps crystallize and strengthen the teacher's own beliefs. When you share faith with children, both the student and the teacher grow. If you are interested in exploring the idea of volunteering as a teacher in the Religious Education Program (K-8th Grade), please contact Sr. Ellen Byrnes at 973.696.4411, x12. This is a wonderful way to grow in faith and help your parish.

CENTENNIAL MASS

Our parish will have other events during the months to come that will continue the celebration of the gift and blessing of our 100th Anniversary.

An Anniversary Mass to honor our wonderful milestone will take place in St. Joseph's Church. This will be a special Mass of Thanksgiving with Bishop Kevin Sweeney as the main celebrant. Priests who have served at St. Joseph in the past have been invited to join in this celebrative gathering on Sunday, July 31st at the 12 Noon Mass. It is our hope that many priests who have helped out or served at St. Joseph's will be in attendance.

As part of the ceremony, a plaque on which the names of all the priests who have served as Pastors is inscribed will be blessed and placed in the ground as a memorial of this Centennial.

A reception will follow in Halloran Hall.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"At that time, Jesus appointed seventy-two others, whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, 'the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few, so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.'"

Before he ascended into heaven, Jesus sent the apostles with the great commission. During His ministry, He sent 36 pairs to prepare His way. The entire church today is sent on a mission, to evangelize, to bring the Lord to others and assist others to discover His presence among them.

In our parishes, we are sent to invite, to bring back the lapsed and to energize our entire community with the grace and presence of Jesus. Why? Because the mission of Jesus remains and we are called to bring what is still far from completed to others.

HIS WORD TODAY

BY REV. WILLIAM J. REILLY

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

Eucharistic Adoration
Every Tuesday 8:30 AM – 10:00 PM

"God dwells in our midst, in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar."

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

If you are planning to have your child baptized, you should be aware of the following regulations:

Unless you receive prior permission, the child is to be baptized in your parish, which is the parish in which you are registered or where you live. All Catholics in the United States belong to a full territorial parish by virtue of their address.

You have to make a pledge to raise the child in the faith. If there is sufficient doubt in the priest's mind that the parents will not raise the child in the faith, he can refuse to do the baptism.

According to the new Code of Canon Law, the sponsors for the child (godparents) must both be baptized and one must be a practicing Roman Catholic. The new Code of Canon Law also insists that the Roman Catholic sponsor must have received both the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation.

Requests for a baptismal date should be made two months in advance. Parents having their first child baptized must participate in a preparation program.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

If you are planning to be married, you should be aware of the following regulations:

The diocese requires one year's notification to the parish before your marriage. If two Catholics are getting married, the marriage may take place in the parish of the bride or the groom. If they are getting married in another parish, they need a letter of permission from their own parish.

If a Catholic marries a non-Catholic and they wish to marry in a ceremony other than that of the Roman Catholic Church, this is possible but requires permission of the Church. All other regulations must be met. A non-Catholic minister can be part of a Catholic ceremony.

Pre-Cana is required before marriage. If either party has been married before, whether Catholic or not, an impediment exists which must be removed by the Church's Tribunal before they can remarry.
