NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9

In this excerpt, the Israelites are reminded that they were warned before God sent an angel to slay the first born of the Egyptians. God called on them to have courage, and then rewarded them by punishing their enemies and leading them from captivity.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Faith is described as true belief even toward things we cannot see. Abram's faith in God was so deep that he wandered through a foreign land, convinced God's promise of a homeland was sincere. God honored his promise to give Abram many descendants, and was proud of the deep faith Abram and his people possessed.

Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

Jesus encourages us to be prepared for his return at all times, for he will come when we least expect him. He tells of a master who entrusts his home to his servants, and fully expects them to be awaiting his return. In the same manner, Jesus can arrive at any moment and expects us to be prepared for his return.

We spend much of our lives waiting: waiting at the doctor's office, waiting for a show to begin, waiting for a loved one to arrive. Each of these examples of waiting has a focus, a reason to justify our patience. The faithful servants in today's Gospel have a focus as well: the master's return. This gives the wait meaning, a purpose. We may not know when our loved one will arrive or when the show will begin, and we may slowly grow impatient while we wait, but when we focus on the object of our expectation, we find it easier.

It is a mistake to think that we wait for Jesus in the same way we wait for anything else in life. Jesus is already present with us as we wait. He arrives for us every day of our lives. He often comes in the person of someone in need, for as he told his disciples, whenever we serve the least among us we serve him.

Today, let us pray that with God's grace we may always be ready for that day when we the Lord face to face. May the Eucharist nourish and strengthen us as we grow as disciples.
