TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Elisha cures Naaman of leprosy, which convinces Naaman that there is only one God. Naaman then asks to take some loads of soil from Israel, so that he can worship and make sacrifices to one true God on his own land.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Paul reminds Timothy that Christ rose from the dead so that many people could be saved. Paul was being treated as a criminal and kept in chains but says, "There is no chaining the word of God!" Paul also says, "If we die in Christ, we will live in him. But if we deny him, he will deny us."

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Jesus cures ten lepers, but only one returns to express gratitude for being healed. Jesus is disappointed that only one gave thanks to God, but tells that one, "Your faith has been your salvation."

SHARING OUR TREASURE

October 2, 2022:	$ 6,911
2 nd Collection, Little Sisters of the poor:	$ 105
Candles:	$ 108
K of C Pennies:	$ 81
Attendance:	512

So often we are like the nine lepers who were cured but did not return to give thanks. We too take good things for granted – the good test results, the accident avoided on the highway, the negative x-ray. So often we chalk up the good things that occur in our lives as being solely the result of our own efforts: "The reason I do not have lung cancer is that I stopped smoking. I am healthy; I eat healthfully; I avoid fats, salt, sugar, cholesterol. I exercise. It's all about me; I made it happen." True, we cooperate, but "none of the above" guarantees good health.

Like the nine lepers do we simply want to get on with our lives instead of reflecting on the source of good gifts? After any of our various recoveries, do we move on immediately – without first giving thanks?

For what are you thankful to God? When is the last time you've expressed your thanks?

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Every Tuesday
8:30 AM – 8:00 PM

Ways to Spend an Hour with Jesus:

The Eucharist celebration always includes: the proclamation of the Word of God; thanksgiving to God the Father for all his benefits, above all the gift of his Son; the consecration of bread and wine; and participation in the liturgical banquet by receiving the Lord's body and blood. These elements constitute one single act of worship.

"Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament and He will fill you with His strength and His power."
