THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 11:22—12:2

In this reading, we are reminded of the love God feels toward every creature, or else he would not have created them. God shows mercy on our sins and hopes we will repent and have faith in him.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2

Paul tells the Thessalonians that God will make them worthy of his call, so that they can be glorified in Christ. Paul also tells them he is unsure when Christ will come again, but urges them not to believe people who falsely state that Jesus has returned.

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Zacchaeus, the wealthy chief tax collector in Jericho, was very excited when Jesus came to town and asked to stay with him. People were angry that Jesus would go to a sinner's home. Zacchaeus then told Jesus he planned to give half of his belongings to the poor, and repay any person he had cheated. Jesus was delighted since his mission was "to search out and save what was lost."

SHARING OUR TREASURE

October 23, 2022:	$ 5,636
2 nd Collection, Missionary Sunday:	$ 1,125
Candles:	$ 118
Poor Box:	$ 90
Attendance:	440

-----
Luke tells us that Jesus "intended to pass through the town" of Jericho, implying that Jericho itself was an insignificant town on the way to Jerusalem, his ultimate destination. But when he sees Zacchaeus in the sycamore tree, he doesn't just stop, he stays. Here is a lost sheep like the one the Good Shepherd pursued in the desert. Here is a penitent thief – not long before Jesus would meet another on the cross – promising to repay all that he had taken from anyone. Here is one of God's children, a sinner, anxious to see Jesus, responding to Jesus with joy, and immediately expressing his contrition. Jesus encountered exactly the kind of person he came to save and so he found himself right at home.
